Rodger Davis

FSMA

Rodger spent many years in architecture and 2002 ago was MD of a London based construction company.

He qualified as a Sports Massage Practitioner in the summer of 2004 and have been a director of the SMA since December 2005. He is also qualified to practice KMI Structural Integration. At a personal level it gives him great pleasure to see SMA progression in building an excellent profession.

Rodger served the SMA for many years in both the Chair and Vice-Chair roles.

He has now retired from the rat-race of London and lives in Suffolk.
